

High Performance™ 80 Series

Residential Oil Furnaces

■ High Performance™ 80 Series. An Oil Furnace for Any Home.

Rated at 80% AFUE, the exceptional performance of these oil-fired furnaces can reduce your heating costs up to 25% in comparison to older furnaces. Plus, a hard cast-ceramic combustion chamber allows heat to be captured and transported more efficiently, eliminating excess heat loss. Further savings are found in the High Performance™ 80's computerized control module, which constantly monitors and maintains proper operation and also contributes to fast and easy maintenance.

■ Comfort by Design.

To enhance the quality of your indoor air, the High Performance™ 80 has an adjustable four-speed direct-drive blower that allows you to select a comfortable level of air circulation. All models are designed to accommodate a high-efficiency air cleaner and humidifier. Plus, the Beckett® flame retention burner atomizes oil, providing more efficient home heating while its electronic controls precisely regulate operation to maintain a consistent indoor temperature.

■ Designed to Fit Almost Anywhere.

Luxaire® oil furnaces employ a multi-position design. They're available in upflow/horizontal models as well as dedicated upflow models.
